

A Well-Paying Job

"Ever since I started working again, I knew my new job was a special favor from Isidoro. I consider writing this letter a duty of justice. And I had been putting it off for lack of time..."

I don't want another day to go by without sharing a favor I have obtained through the intercession of Isidoro Zorzano.

I am married and we have four children: three in university and one still in school. For a long time now, our financial situation has been more than just tight and we were having trouble meeting even the most basic needs of our family, so I began praying to God through the intercession of Isidoro, so that He might lend us a hand.

Then, a month ago now, without my seeking it, a job opportunity turned up for me in Cádiz. This employment includes a schedule that is compatible with the rest of my personal duties and that also, by the way, pays very well.

Ever since I started working again, I knew my new job was a special favor from Isidoro. I consider writing this letter a duty of justice. And I had been putting it off for lack of time...

Two days ago I was getting gas for my car and when I went to pay, I saw that there was a prayer card of Isidoro framed, right there in the gas station. I told the person who was attending me that this was a friend of mine, and I suddenly realized that this was a sign that I still needed to make good on my promise to write up the favor. When I got home, I dropped some papers on the floor by accident, and among them was a newsletter about Isidoro. All I could do but look up to heaven and say: message understood! Thanks, Isidoro, for your closeness and for this great favor that you have done for to the whole family.
